

Willow Tree Learning

Improving Education For All

Essential SENCO Network Annual

Conference 2018

Supporting Physical and Sensory

Wednesday 4th July 2018

John Innes Centre, Norwich, NR4 7UH

Key note presentations from:

Philippa Stobbs

Assistant Director -Council for Disabled Children

The presentation will explore how schools and settings can utilise the Equality Act 2010 to support disabled children and families and will provide an update on national news and initiatives from the Council for Disabled Children.

Lynda Niles

Occupational Therapist

The focus will be on understanding sensory processing and how to support children and young people who experience difficulties integrated sensory information.

Virtual School Sensory Support

Members of the VSSS will explore strategies for supporting children and young people with HI, VI and or MSI.

Plus workshops

Essential SENCO Network Members: £62

Non members: £93

Willow Tree Learning

Improving Education For All

Annual SENCO Conference

4th July 2018

John Innes Centre

I /We would like to attend the Essential SENCO Network conference 2018

Name(s):

School or Setting:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

Number of Places:

I am eligible to pay £62 for a subsidised place

I agree to pay £93 for a place

On completion of this form, I will receive a confirmation email from Willow Tree Learning and an invoice for payment.

Please return to:

conference@willowtreelearning.co.uk

Or post to:

Willow Tree Learning

5 Willow Close, Tasburgh, Norwich, NR15 1NE